WILD CARD PROGRAMME – AN IMPORTANT LAUNCH PROSPECT FOR NEW DESTINATIONS AND CONVENTION CENTRES

The IMEX Wild Card programme offers new or emerging destinations around the world the opportunity to apply for a free exhibition place at IMEX (worth over €6,500) plus complimentary accommodation, access to discounted air fares and year-round marketing and PR support.

This is an extremely valuable chance for ambitious yet unknown destinations or new convention and conference centres in such destinations to showcase their offering to an audience of global buyers. At the same time, winners benefit from the reflected authority that sharing the stage with some of the world's biggest meetings industry suppliers provides.

Winning a place on the Wild Card programme brings worldwide attention which, in turn, can help reinforce prominence, funding and goodwill at a local level.

No risk, high profile opportunity

The IMEX Wild Card programme offers a no risk, high profile opportunity to learn about the global meetings market and to hone a destination's offering. At the same time it is a chance to build important contacts and potential partnerships for the future.

Such is the success of the Wild Card programme that many destinations now return to IMEX to exhibit independently.

In 2010 IMEX welcomed over 3,500 exhibiting companies from 157 countries, representing national and regional tourist offices, major hotel groups, airlines, destination management companies, service providers, trade associations and more.

Over 3,870 hosted buyers (who travel and stay free as guests of the organisers) from 63 world markets visited IMEX, contributing to a total of 8,905 visitors for the show's busiest three days to date.

What is on offer?

There are four Wild Card places to be awarded. The successful applicants will participate in a collective 'Look to the Future' Pavilion. Each Wild Card destination will receive one complimentary hotel room for three nights' stay in Frankfurt, plus free attendance for one person at the show's gala dinner.

Prior to their IMEX participation, the Wild Card winners will receive free marketing advice from industry professionals, plus sales training on how best to present and promote their destinations.

Applications

- > Entries for Wild Card status must be submitted by 12 November 2010.
- > They will be scrutinised by a panel of judges representing leading industry associations.
- > Any destination (country, region, city or town) providing it has never previously exhibited at a major meetings/incentive travel event.
- > Any new convention/conference centre (which has been open for three years or less or is due to open in the 12 months following IMEX 2010) in such a new destination (as described above), which has never previously exhibited at a major meetings/incentive travel event.
- > Applicants should have the support in writing of their respective government tourist/convention authority and display realistic potential in the business tourism, meetings or incentive travel sector.
- > Decisions will be announced by the end of December 2010.
