

Helga Severyns

Mrs Helga Severyns is the Senior Director of the International Association of Public Transport UITP (Brussels). German native married to a Belgian Artist, one child, working for UITP for over 30 years in different positions. She created an in-house Events department in the late 80's.

Main responsibilities are : Membership and Events Policy and Financial and Commercial Strategy. She heads 2 departments: Events and Finance & Administration. She is also responsible for the creation, financial and structural supervision of the various UITP's regional offices around the world.